

SIS Rehabilitation
& Disability

Rehabilitation & Disability Special Interest Section (RDSIS) Practice Chat:

Meet and Greet

RDSIS Standing Committee
November 19, 2025
8 PM ET

SIS Rehabilitation
& Disability

Rehabilitation & Disability Special Interest Section (RDSIS) supports individuals with physical dysfunction resulting from a wide range of conditions

Sara Kate Frye - Chair

Educator

Current faculty member

Clinical educator

Research on Health Management

Clinical Experience 20+ Years

Home Health- 5+ Years (Current)

Inpatient Rehab- 15 years

Specialties

Chronic Conditions

Neurological Conditions

Seating and Positioning

Jody Niemann Priest - Communities Of Practice (CoP) Liaison

Current Position:

Divisional Lead Neurological OT in outpatient rehab

Past Experience:

Over 30 years experience in SNF, subacute, home health and outpatient settings

Areas of interest:

Vision Rehabilitation including post-stroke, dementia-related vision deficits and low vision

Contact: jodyniemann@gmail.com

Enrollment Surveys For CoPs

Acute & Critical Care COP

Adaptive Sports & Leisure COP

Cancer Care COP

Lifestyle Management COP

Palliative Care COP

Women's Health COP

Tyler Hood - Committee Member

- Recent graduate from Washington University in St. Louis, School of Medicine, Program in OT.
- NBCOT
- Michigan

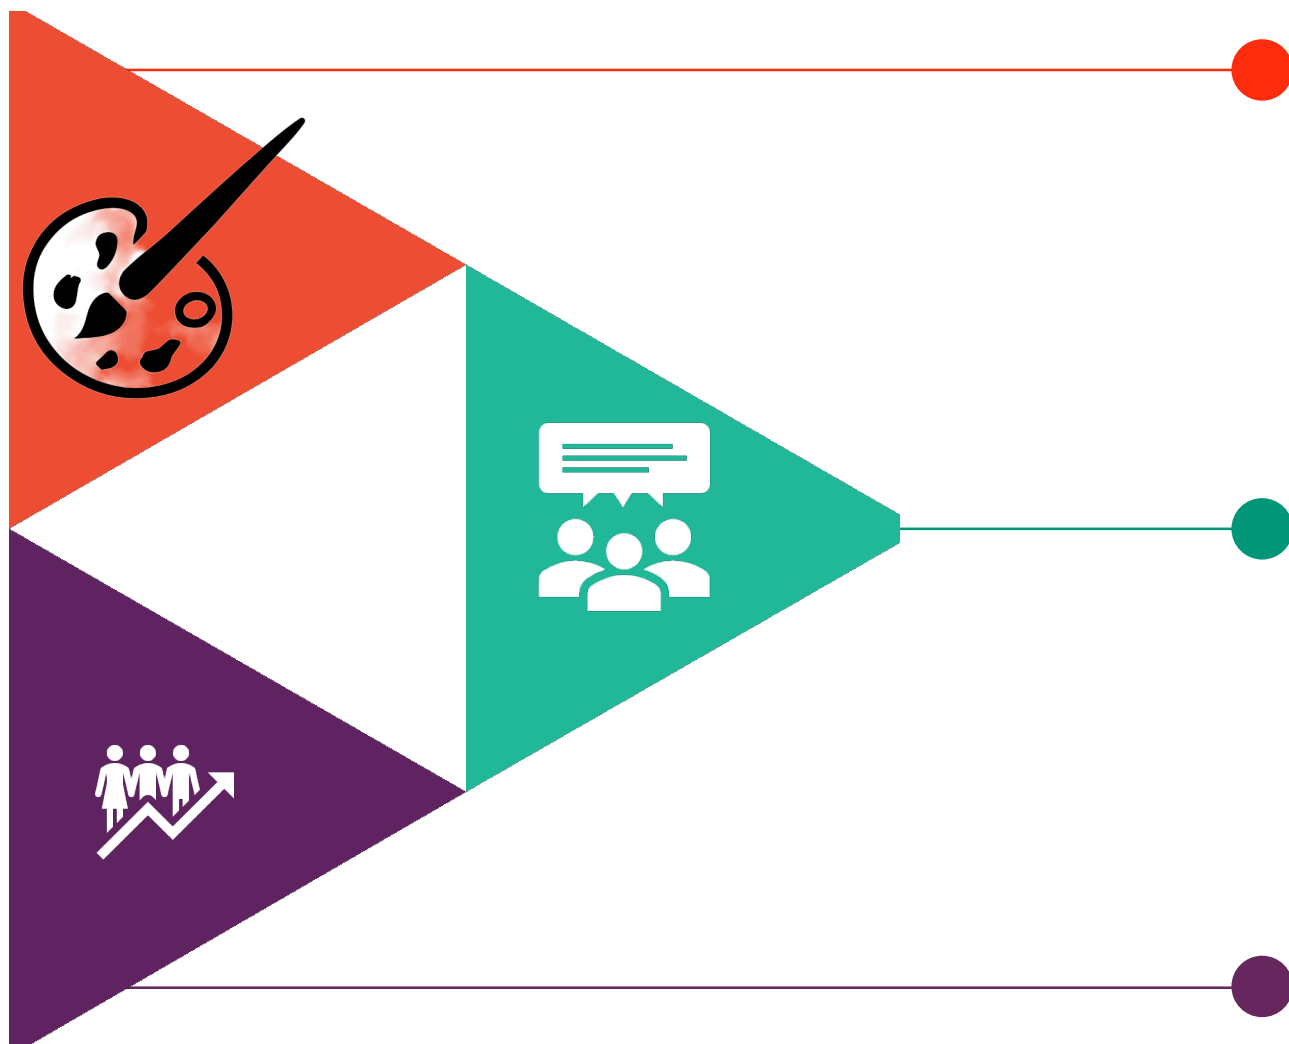

Areas of Interest

- Outpatient
- Long term hospitals
- Neurological population
- Pediatric population

What got me into OT?

- Skiing accident resulting in TBI
 - Occupational Therapy
 - Physical Therapy
 - Speech Therapy
 - Neurological Therapy

Website Design

Design and add aesthetics to the RDSIS website

Website Content

The team and I develop content and incorporate it on the website

Check it out

Megan Mahaffey- Committee Member

- OT for 18 years in Inpatient Rehab
- Interest Areas: SCI & Assistive Technology
- Adjunct Professor in MOT program
- Engagement Coordinator
- Fun Fact: I have never lived in a county

Practice Chat Needs Assessment

Liz Zubenko- Committee Member

-OT for 12 years working primarily in acute care

-Currently at a level 1 trauma hospital in the suburbs of Chicago

-Passionate about mentorship and guiding the next generation of our profession

-Fun fact: joined Peace Corps Paraguay prior to entering OT school

Christine McNichols: Committee Member

- OT for 9 years and graduated from Virginia Commonwealth University

- Currently a postdoctoral research fellow in occupational therapy and gerontology

- Continues to work PRN in acute care

- Professional interests include health services research and cancer rehabilitation

Mentorship Program

- Connects new OT practitioners with a seasoned OTR/L or COTA mentor
- Mentors: impart your knowledge and guide a new practitioner toward success
- Mentees: obtain support and resources to further develop and gain confidence in your practice

January-June 2026!

Accepting applications now!

Mentorship Program

Mentor Application:

<https://forms.gle/Bm5JDpCjQ9G7Na626>

Mentee Application:

<https://forms.gle/82iv4nhaveSy5DvG6>

Kristen MW Chang:

Editor; Committee Member

OT for 15 years, OTD from St. Catherine University

Supervisor for Level I & II students through University of Minnesota

PRN at Mayo Hospital, Rochester MN

Fun Fact: I love all things winter!

SIS Quarterly Practice Connections

SIS articles are focused on practical, meaningful topics that are immediately usable to clinicians.

Connect with us!
rdsiseditor@gmail.com
<https://tinyurl.com/mwh5r753>

SIS Quarterly Practice Connections

Be an author

Write an article.
Have an interesting case study or topic on your mind?
Write it up!

Be a reviewer

Are you a content expert and willing to provide your feedback on an article?

Suggest a topic

Help us know what our members would like more articles on.

rdsiseditor@gmail.com
<https://tinyurl.com/mwh5r753>

Tatiana Guerrero-David: Committee Member

-OT for 2.5 years, graduated from Thomas Jefferson University

-Currently PRN at Magee Rehab Hospital and research therapist at Moss Rehab

-experience includes clinical research focused on SCI and stroke

-Professional interests include neurorecovery and community accessibility

Speciality spotlights

Calling for OTPs that can highlight their unique experience

-To be featured in a once a month post.

-For examples see:

<https://rdsis.aota.org/specialty-spotlight/>

Monitor CommunOT

Highlight what members need/what supports they are looking for by their posts on CommunOT

-Facilitate communication between RDSIS members and the committee

Interested in being featured or know someone, please send me an email to tatianaguerrero.tg@gmail.com

Joanna Hoh – Committee Member

- OT for 7 years
- Practice Settings: Inpatient Rehab & Home Health
- Speciality Interest: Neurorehabilitation & Stroke
- Current Role: PhD Student at the University of Delaware
- RDSIS Role: Evidence-Based Research Coordinator

Research Conversations

On RDSIS's CommunOT, look out for #ResearchConversations

Monthly/Bi-monthly summaries on CommunOT about articles of interest for the RDSIS community

Open to topic suggestions/requests for future posts!

RDSIS Interns

Mikayla Dunn, OTD/S
Student at Nova Southeastern University in Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Breanna Evans, OTD/S
Student at University of Missouri in Columbia, Missouri

Ariella Levy, OTD/S
Student at Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis

American
Occupational Therapy
Association